"Giving of her wisdom freely
To all those who will abide."

This is what she has always done. The seniors have always respected and admired her; the whole school has been indebted to her for her work. Therefore we dedicate this, the 1959 CROSSROADS, to our sponsor . . . Miss Roxie Gaulding.

Baby, you what I like

Chow time

The "LOUDMOU THS"

and I guess you know that school has started again. Summer seemed incredibly short, but really I'm glad to be back with the old gang. It's not going to be easy though; my teachers will see to that! There are lots of new faces, as well as old, among our faculty this year. About 15 of our 54 teachers are new.

Tell me, will Freshman ever stop looking young and angelic, and will Sophomores, forever act as if they're glad they're not Freshman? We surely have a good football program this year. The Freshman and B-teams will have plenty of opportunities to display their skill.

Our Tigers will face a tough schedule, but with the help of our superb coaches and ravenous cheerleaders we're hoping for a victorious season. Skip dances in the gym will.....

state's second ranked team, rambled to a 32-0 win after the Bengals.

WHITEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL'S 'FIGHTIN' TIGERS gave football fans something to cheer about this season. Although their record seems a little unconvincing, 5-4-1, the squad has shown that fired up spirit, so typical of the teams of the past. While amassing 86 points to opponents 25, the clawing bengals annexed their 11th straight county league title. Competition outside the league furnished a different story with the Tigers, 40 in league play, grabbing off only one game while losing four and tying one.

In the league opener the team outscored Collier-ville 33-12 as a fleet of powerful Whitehaven backs ground at will over the out-classed Maroons. The next week, however, was a different story, as CBHS crushed the Bengals 32-0. Hampered by mud and rain, Whitehaven slipped by Millington 13-0 although having 4 tallies called back by infractions. Blytheville eked out a victory over the team 12-0 in a game marred by fumbles which proved costly to the Tigers.

In the annual Homecoming contest the Bengals edged a fired-up Bartlett team 7-0, as Queen Ann Harbin and her court watched from the stands. This victory insured a tie for the title, and they then copped the flag by roaring past Germantown 33-12 the following week after playing a scoreless half.

Messick furnished the next opposition for Whitehaven and deadlocked the Tigers 7-7 in a fiercely contested battle. Humes came back from the half trailing 7-0 and surged ahead to win 21-7. Then Frayser, newest additions to the Prep League, traveled across the county with hopes of upending their arch-rival, Whitehaven, only to return thoroughly thrashed 27-6.

In the season's finale, Whitehaven battled mighty South Side, the State's number three team, all the way before falling 6-0. The Scrappers wandered into the "Tigers Lair" undefeated and expecting an easy victory over their "Country Cousins," but returned petrified to the very bones after halting a Whitehaven thrust on the three yard line via a fumble. A sloppy, muddy field and a drenching rain hampered both teams running attack and completely demolished all passing. Whitehaven's forward wall played a superb game in thwarting the South Side's offense and clearing holes for their own. Although a victory would have been more impressive no credit can be abducted from the Bengals in this game.

Defending against Bartlett pass is Whitehaven halfback Tom Coleman. Tigers squelched Panthers upset ideas for a 7-0 win.

Bengal fullback Tom Coleman skirts end in Bartlett game for 27 yards.

... This year our club program is better than ever and I know it will improve as the year goes by. Each club has its own way of benefiting the school. The Crosscut Club sponsors our Christmas Dance, which is complete with Christmas tree, Santa Claus and presents.

Basketball, played in the new gym this year, is one of our most exciting sports of the season. We're surely working hard to win the County Championship.

The Juniors, since they will be next years Seniors, will take the lead in social events as well as other school activities. Receiving their Senior rings will be one of the highlights of their year.

They will have a busy schedule taking all types of scholastic tests, preparing themselves for future education. Some think this will...

The Crosscut Club, composed of the presidents of classes, clubs, and other student organizations, serves the school as an inter club council. Two annual projects are the Christmas Dance and the Student Recognition Banquet, honoring twelve outstanding Seniors.

The King and I
 Selecting materials for the costumes in "The King and I" posed somewhat of a problem.

Speech Productions 1958 — 1959

The discovery of a license number scribbled on a scrap of paper led the police to the Hillard home.

The lives of the Hillard family hung in balance while three desperate criminals held them captives.

Desperate Hours

... Long awaited Spring is here. It'll be such fun taking part in all the activities everyone has looked forward to so much.

Baseball and track, our Spring sports, are about to start, and we're surely hoping for a good season. I can hardly wait for the annual Pan-American Dance. Last year's queen will crown the new Miss Pan-America. Wonder who it will be ???

Spring brings many things into the Seniors' program. First of all, twelve outstanding Seniors will be awarded "honor keys" at the Honor Banquet, sponsored by the Crosscut Club. Among our other activities are the Twirl Dance, Class Day. Senior Tea, class meetings and various parties. Last comes the most eagerly awaited moment of all --- GRADUATION and the PROM. I have...

Honor

Jimmy Price, Clifford Allen, Mary Louise Wilson, and Gwyn Ellis, are admiring Red Davis' key.

After the banquet beaming recipients gather around Mr. Robison and special guests, George Barnes, Superintendent of Shelby County Schools, and Fred Elliot, former principal.

David Watts was not present because of illness.

Charles Demetriou, Mickey Irby, Betty Haraway, Jimmy Sanders, Jackie Neef, and Allan Jones smile broadly after receiving their honor keys.

Banquet

Wayne Powers delivers key note address to give a big start to this year's Honor Banquet.

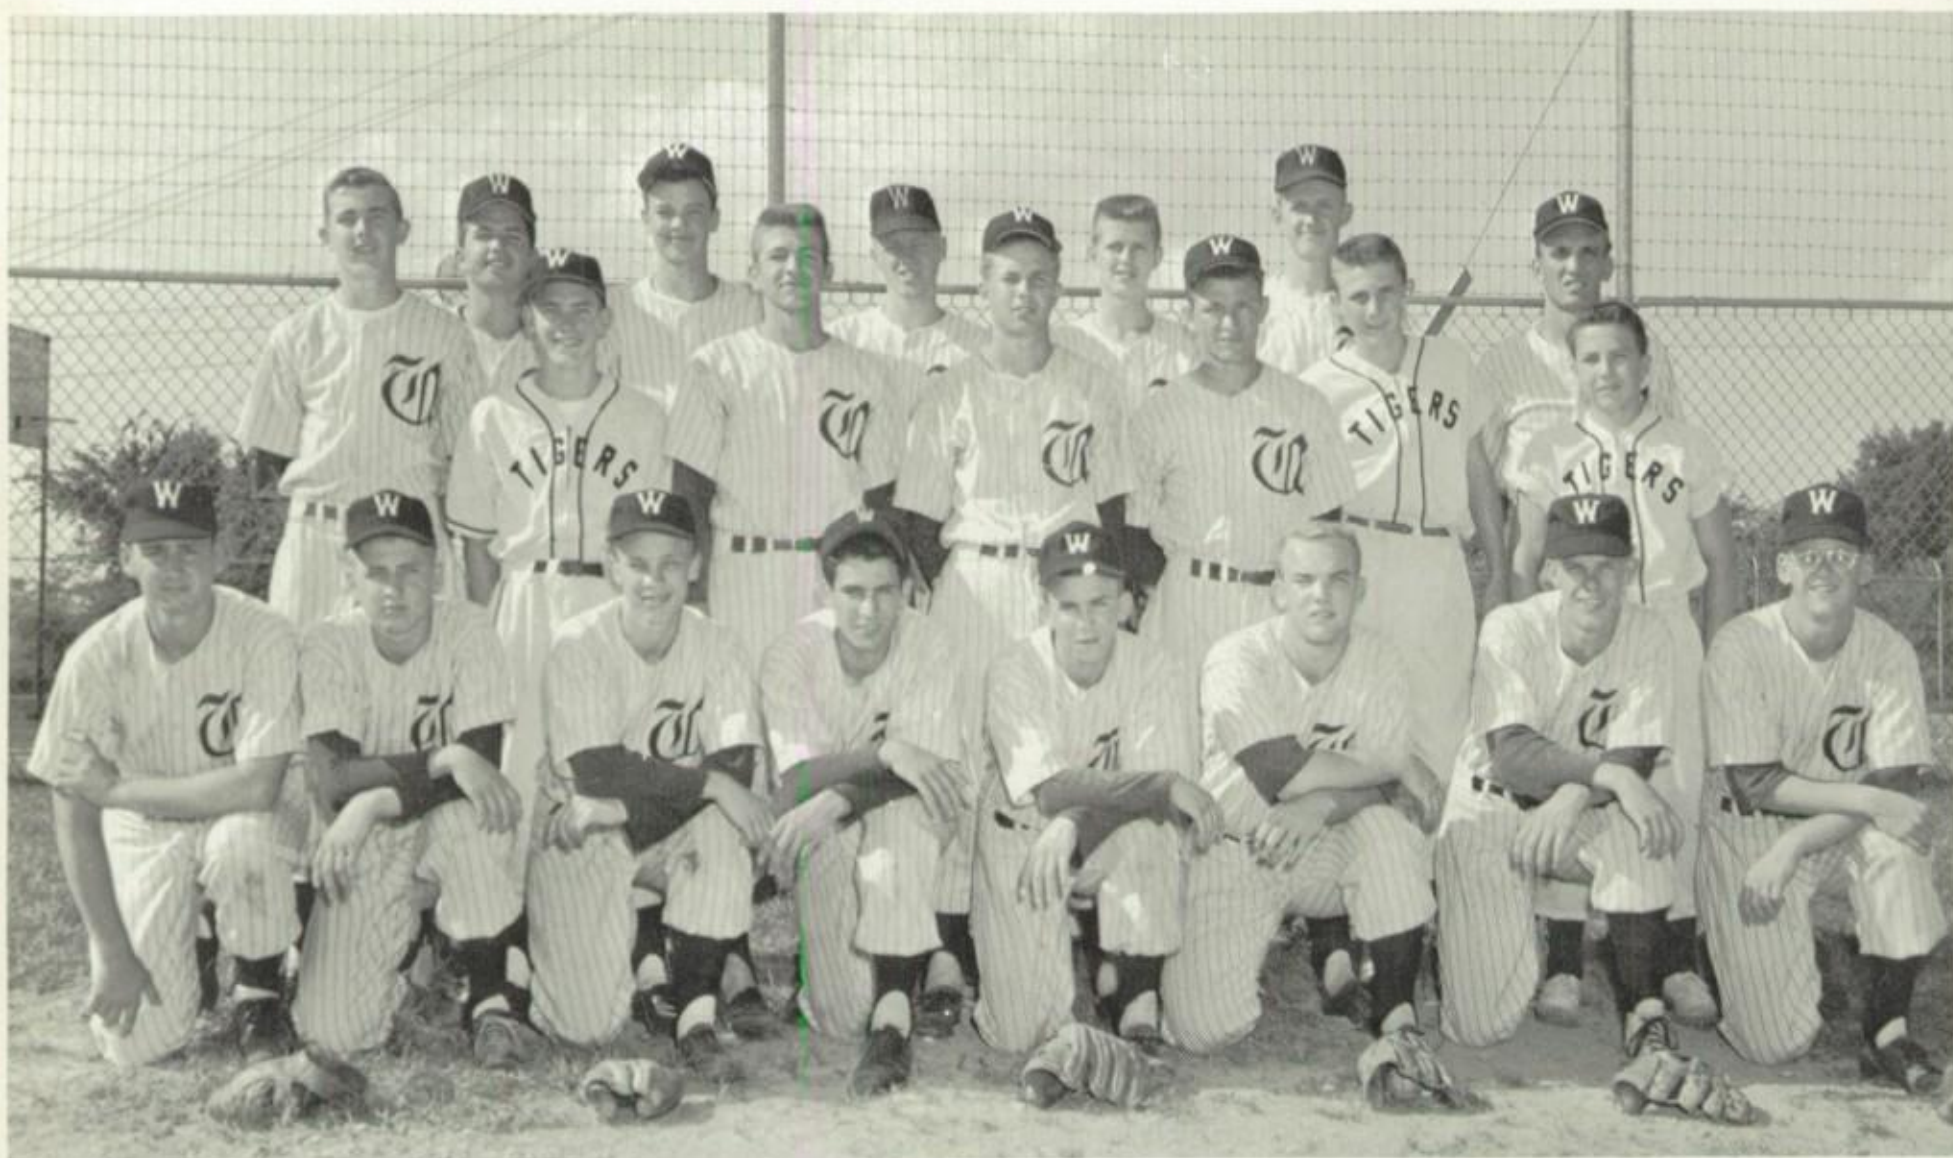

Guests, teachers, and club officers enjoy the fine food being served.

Betty Haraway, Secretary of Crosscut Club, calls roll of club officers.

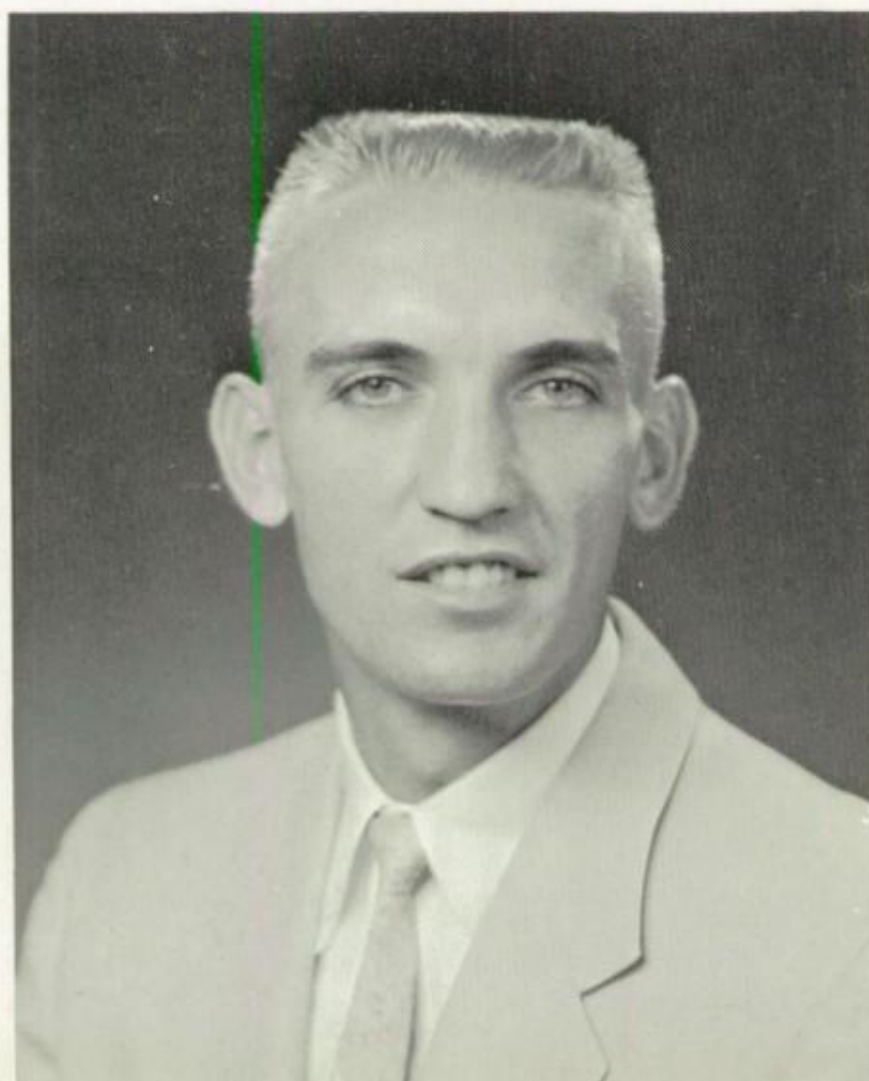

Each year the Crosscut Club gives a banquet honoring twelve outstanding Seniors. The Junior Betas present honor keys to these twelve students. The faculty and officers of all the clubs are invited to attend.

I have enjoyed being in your Algebra class this year. I hope to will be in more next year.

O Peter cool cat loved a real cool one. I wish that he always signed Bill. James who is always! No. Bill mineville! No. I remember ex-oh. Now I remember either.
